TERMS:

One Week..... $ 25
One Month..... 100
One year..... 1000

Wind and dust.

It is about time for another stage robbery.

Work has been commenced on the depot extension.

A train loaded at the depot Thursday with supplies for Ft. Bayard.

Work on the bridge is progressing about as well as could be expected.

Car load of lath just received by 53-dw RUPE & CASTLE

Oh! For one cooling shower! Something like the one Nogah experienced.

Six visitors attended the masonic lodge Wednesday night; all of whom passed a satisfactory examination.

A good adobe house is going up just east of the new Episcopal church.

The weather, morning and evening is perfectly delightful.

Mrs Annie G. Wood is succeeding very well with her select school. She is a competent teacher and her school should be well patronized.

Keep an eye out for the melon show. Hopper Bros. will have 1,200 watermelons and 3000 musk melons Monday night from Missouri. d-53-81.

The huge wagons, loaded with wool, hides, pelts, copper etc still come in from the south and after unloading at the depot take on a cargo of miscellaneous goods for the return trip.

The O. K. barber shop on center street in addition to first class shaving etc. makes a specialty of baths. If you want to have your hair cut, shave, have a shampoo and finish with a bath call on Flynn.

It is now proposed to recommend track laying about the first of the next month, and the building train is to be fitted out and other preliminaries attended to, but there is a possibility that work will not commence that soon.

The Las Animas Grant in Colorado has got into the courts of New York, and unless there is likely to remain till eaten up by fees costs and charges of various kinds. Dr. Bolan says William Craig for over $25,000 for services as civil engineer, in preparing maps, writing a history of the Grant, and purposing notes for General Butler who is to conduct the case before Congress. As has happened in all the other grants the owner is likely to pay all the land is worth in litigation.

The Denver and Rio Grande management has made an alliance with the Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific by which either of the three are to make terms with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe. In the mean time the latter is pushing its line from Pueblo toward Denver.

The New York Tribune says a large portion of the Maxwell land grant in New Mexico, is certainly the most extensive suit of the kind now pending in the United States and very probably has never been equaled in extent or property affected. The most recent grants embrace no fewer than fifteen thousand acres more, and include some cattle grazing lands, the mortgage with accrued interest amounting to over seven millions. Craig has already had confirmed to him by his office 97,000 acres of this land and this he sold last year to the Colorado Cattle Company for 1,200,000. His success thus far has only whetted his appetite for further raids upon the public domain.

Gov. Army, one of the old editors of the Prairie Farmer, and a friend of education in Illinois, who conigrated largely towards the establishment of the Normal University at Bloomington, is in the city staying for a couple of days at the Brevoort House. He is en route to England, after attending the meeting of the "Hedehets" at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, in New York on the 25th, of this month. He has with him a large collection of minerals, natural history specimens, and Indian Aztec pottery, etc., which he proposes to take to London and Manchester museums. Old citizens will remember the Governor as an active agent in 1856 and 1857 in the Free-State cause in Kansas.—Chicago Tribune.

Special court in Colfax.

Chief Justice Prince arrived from Santa Fe Thursday evening. He has ordered a special term of court in Colfax county to adjudicate affairs of the Maxwell grant, to be held the 16th of next month.

Car load of eastern lumber, sash, doors, etc. just received by RUPE & CASTLE.

PERSONAL.

Judge Prince of the District Court came in on the stage last evening from Santa Fe. He will probably spend a few days looking after his investment here.

Mr. J. E. Pitcher chief clerk of the construction department has extensive mining interests in Dakota. He is part owner of several promising mines.

Don Pablo Anaya, of Puerto de Luma, school commissioners who has been in attendance on the sessions of that body this week was called home Thursday on account of serious illness in his family.

TELEGRAPHIC.

U. S. Deputy Collector Shot.

Charleston, Sept. 22.—Internal Revenue Collector Brayton received a dispatch from Spartansburg stating that Special Deputy Collector and U. S. Deputy Marshal L. J. Davis was shot this evening by J. B. Banister while serving a bench warrant issued in North Carolina, but which had been made serviceable in the district by Judge Bryan. Banister was shot in the leg by a negro, and is now in jail at Spartanburg. Davis' thigh bone was badly broken.

Farmers' Investigation.

Topeka, September 22.—The congressional committee investigation with charges of bribery against Senator Ingalls met to-day. The prosecution were not ready. Ingalls demanded that every member of the legislature who voted for him be subpoenaed to testify whether they were bribed. The committee took the matter under advisement.

Louisville Races.

Louisville, September 22.—First day of fall meeting of Louisville Jockey Club. Track fast and a fine crowd. The first heat was for two-year-old fillies three quarters of a mile with Sly Dance the favorite. Daded beat between Sly Dance and Sly and Sly was the result of the second trial but Sly Dance won the next time easily. By-and-bye second. Time 1:47. The second event was two miles and Lord Marahy, the favorite, won. By-and-bye second. Orissa third. Time 3:24.

Third race, mile heats, Ben-Hill the favorite. Shorten took the first heat, Kinkor second, Shaker third. Ben-Hill fourth. Ben-Hill won the second heat easily. Kinkor second. Shaker third. Ben-Hill won the third heat in a canter. Time 1:47. 1:47. 1:39.

An old man's home, is one of the institutions of Cincinnati, it is a noble charity. If there is a sad sight in our crowded thoroughfares, it is to see an old man tottering on the brink of the grave, unable to do a child's work, yet compelled to drudge for his daily bread.

Grant and a Third Term.

New York, Sept. 22.—A Philadelphia correspondent of the London Times, who says he occasionally sees Grant's letters to friends there, says they tell nothing of his intentions and leave the great bulk of his candidacy unopened. He makes no reference to being a candidate, but on the contrary writes as if such a subject never entered his thoughts.

Fair in Dallas.

Nashville, September 21.—The big pugilistic contest, having been suspended at St. Louis, Kansas City and Topeka, Kansas, a hundred negroes left here tonight for Memphis and more will follow in their wake.

The California people are still going wild over Grant.
